About this collection

Our free dragon coloring pages cover the whole dragon kingdom: a friendly dragon waving from a flowery meadow, a baby hatching from its egg, a proud fire-breather, a sleepy hoarder curled up on its treasure, and even a long cloud-dancing dragon inspired by Chinese parades. Each drawing is original art with bold outlines and big open areas, easy for small hands and genuinely fun for older kids who want scales worth shading. There are extra-simple pages for toddlers and intricate winged beasts for patient colorists. Print a few, pick your flame colors, and let the adventure begin.

Where can you find free printable dragon coloring pages?

Right here. This page has 40 free dragon coloring pages: a baby dragon hatching, a fire-breather, a treasure cave, a castle tower and more. Every design downloads as a crisp vector PDF sized for US Letter and A4, with no sign-up and no watermarks, and each one can also be colored in our online coloring studio.

Tips for coloring dragons

The best thing about dragons is that no color is wrong. Classic green always works, but red, purple, ice blue or a rainbow gradient across the scales look just as good. Try coloring each row of belly plates a slightly different shade, give the flames a yellow core with orange edges, and save a metallic gold pen for the coins in the treasure cave. If you use markers, print on slightly heavier paper so nothing bleeds through; crayons and pencils are happy on regular printer paper. More paper and printing advice lives in our how-to-print guide.

Pages for every age of dragon fan

Little kids can start with the extra-thick-lined baby dragon, while the intricate patterned wings at the end of the gallery can keep a ten-year-old, or a grown-up, busy for a whole evening. Teachers and parents can print as many copies as they like for class or home; the details are in our licensing policy. When the dragon phase meets the dinosaur phase, our dinosaur coloring pages are drawn in the same friendly style, when it meets the water instead, our mermaid coloring pages swap wings for fins and bring dolphins, narwhals and a sunken ship, and the rest of the magical crew lives in our fantasy coloring pages.

How to print

Every page is sized for US Letter and prints on A4 without cropping if you set your printer to "fit to page". Print single-sided so colors do not show through, and use cardstock if you plan to use markers. There are no watermarks and no sign-up, on any page.

Terms of use

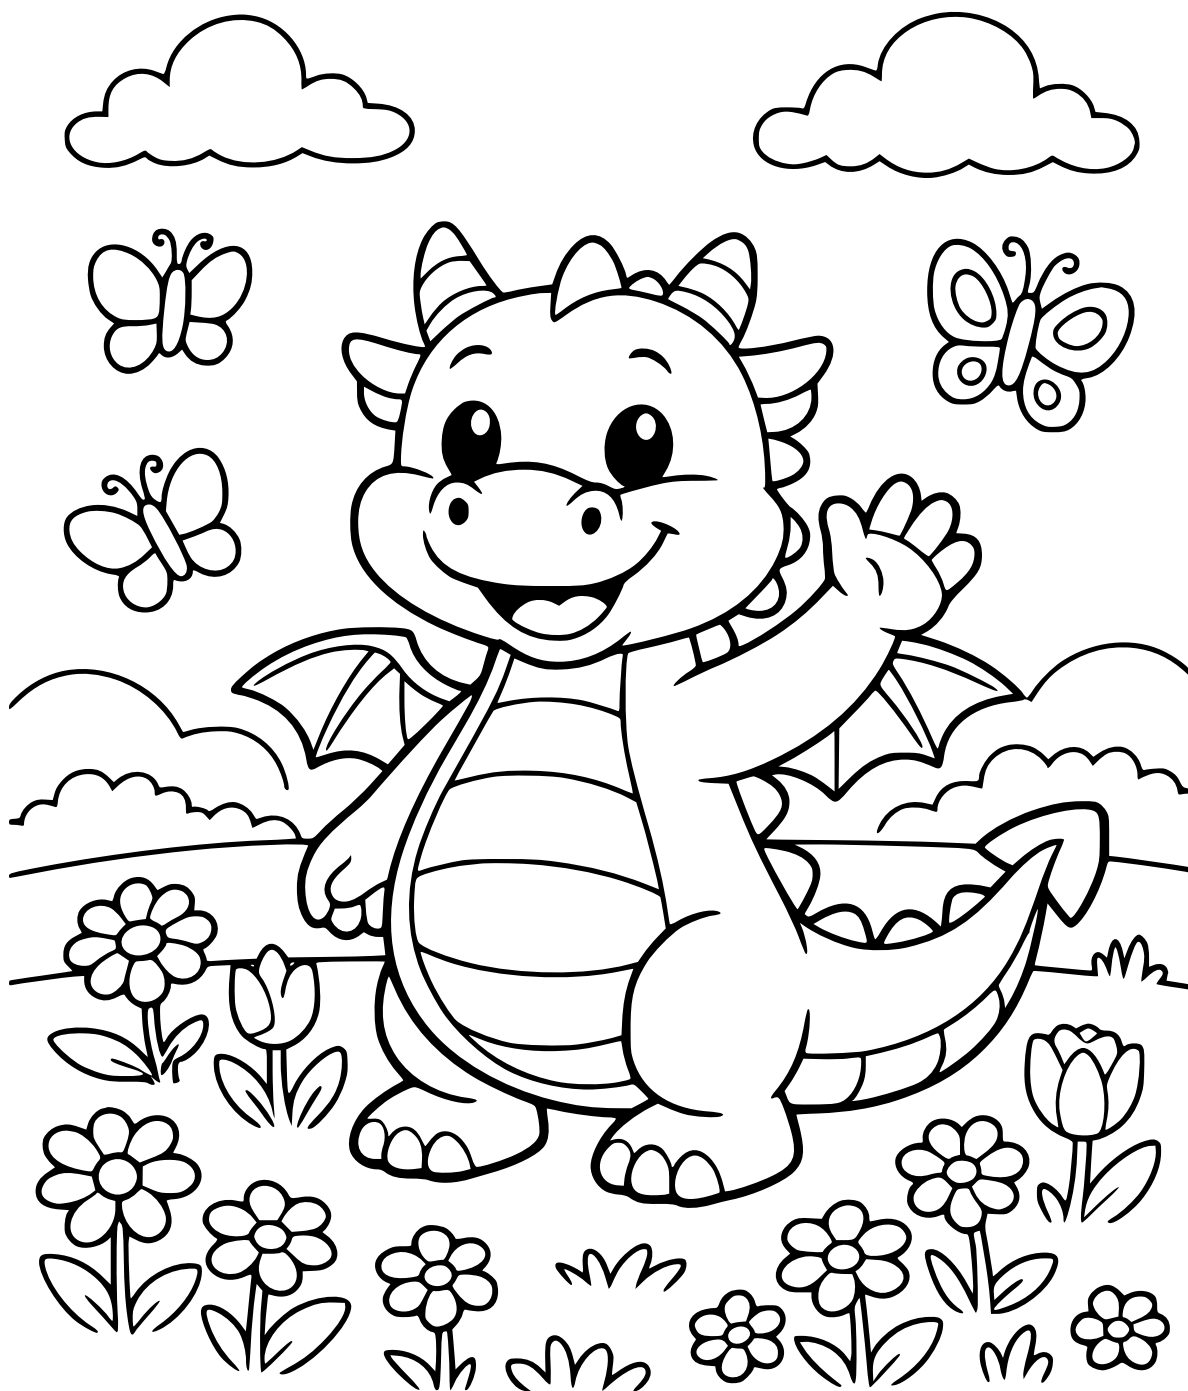

Free for personal, classroom and library use. Print as many copies as you need. Please do not re-sell these pages or re-host the file: link to the collection page instead, so the book stays up to date.
