Princess Coloring Book

40 original princess coloring pages, free to print at home, at school and in the classroom. Every design in this book is also available as a single-page download, and many can be colored online in your browser.

About this collection

Welcome to our princess coloring pages. A big collection of free printable designs, each ready to download as a high-quality PDF and print at home in seconds. No sign-up, no watermarks: pick a princess, press Download PDF, and you are coloring within a minute. Every page is original artwork sized for Letter and A4 paper, drawn with bold, clear outlines that are easy for small hands to follow. You will find a princess waving from her castle balcony, a twirling ball gown, a royal tea party, a friendly frog at the pond and a snowy winter princess, plus extra-easy designs made for toddlers and intricate patterned gowns for older artists. Prefer to skip the printer? Every design can also be colored online right in your browser. Perfect for birthday parties, classrooms, rainy afternoons and quiet time.

Tips for coloring princesses

Gowns are the fun part, so start there. Pick two or three colors that look good together (pink with gold, lavender with mint, sky blue with silver) and keep the biggest area the lightest so the details stand out. Crowns and jewelry love yellow, gold or orange, and a touch of yellow around them reads as sparkle. Backgrounds can stay white for a clean storybook look, or get a soft wash of blue sky and green grass. If you color with markers, print on slightly thicker paper (cardstock) so nothing bleeds through; crayons and pencils are happy on regular printer paper.

Which princess should you print first?

For toddlers, start with the easy design, with extra-thick lines and big open areas made for first-time colorists. Kids around four to eight usually reach for the story scenes: the tea party, the friendly frog at the pond or the twirling ball gown. Older kids and grown-ups love the patterned gown, which colors like a mini mandala. Hosting a princess party? Print a stack of the castle balcony and crown-and-mirror pages and you have an instant activity table.

Frequently asked questions

Are these princess coloring pages free for schools?

Yes. Everything here is free for personal use and for classrooms, libraries and therapy practices. The details are in our licensing policy.

What paper size do the PDFs fit?

Every PDF is designed to print on both US Letter and A4. Choose "fit to page" in your print dialog and you are set. More tips in our how-to-print guide.

Can we color these princesses online?

Yes. Every design has a "Color online" button that opens it in our browser coloring studio, no printer needed. You can also browse every online coloring page on the site in one place.

More magical coloring

If crowns and castles won you over, our unicorn coloring pages are the natural next stop: designs that range from easy toddler pages to an intricately patterned mane. If you would rather follow one heroine through her whole story, our Rapunzel coloring pages bring the tower and the famous long braid to the coloring table. The Cinderella coloring pages add the pumpkin carriage, the glass slipper and the fairy godmother to the same shelf. Our mermaid coloring pages add a queen of the sea on her throne of shells to the same royal shelf. You can also browse every magical collection together on our fantasy coloring pages hub, where new creatures always land first.

How to print

Every page is sized for US Letter and prints on A4 without cropping if you set your printer to "fit to page". Print single-sided so colors do not show through, and use cardstock if you plan to use markers. There are no watermarks and no sign-up, on any page.

Terms of use

Free for personal, classroom and library use. Print as many copies as you need. Please do not re-sell these pages or re-host the file: link to the collection page instead, so the book stays up to date.
